

Javon

Javon is a fun loving boy who always has a smile on his face. He describes himself as “being funny” and “kind.” His favorite TV show is Captain America and he likes it when the good guys win the battle. Javon is good at sports and his preferred sports include basketball and football.. Javon is full of personality and gumption. He loves music, video games and simple board games. He enjoys reading to others and being the center of attention. He receives services from Regional Center and he has an iep in place. Javon responds well to structure and consistency. Javon is looking for a family that “will be patient with me, loves me and likes to have good time.”

